A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR RAYMOND

Doing the impossible! What do you think about this?

Which is easier, to sit back and let the circumstances direct your life, or to put some effort into changing your circumstances? Your choice! Christ demands effort, effort from our part. Jesus doesn't ask, "would you like to try and walk?". Jesus demands effort. It is required before your healing is received. At the pool of Bethesda (yes, we are still at the pool) we read that an angel was sent to 'trouble' the waters. Those who jumped or walked into it 'first' were healed. You see the angel 'troubled' the waters making it possible for them to be healed of their sickness and disease, but listen, effort was required on their part first, because it was necessary for them to 'step into the waters' before they were healed. Today, we are to 'step into the water' of God's healing power in Christ Jesus the Healer, who has come to this world and we are to come to Him. Anytime, any place, and reach out to Him in faith and be healed. There may be there may have been a special time in your life when the anointed healing power of Christ was present, and it was there ready available for you to step into the divine flow of healing for your life. But, for you to do so, it demanded an effort from your part, but you were unwilling. This is why Jesus asked the impotent man "Are you willing to be made whole?" How does this work, demanding an effort? "I do all I can" you might say. When you step into the flow of God's divine healing you are expecting Him to do something. If Christ says to you "Take your hearing aid off" you must act in obedience before there is a manifestation of that hearing. How can God heal you if you keep your hearing aid on? Likewise, if you are confined to a wheelchair or find it hard to walk especially unaided, for the healing power of God to flow through your body you must put every effort possible to rise up onto your feet and begin to walk. Then CALL UPON THE NAME OF JESUS to aid your walking, or to clear your ears to hear.

God can do the impossible if you are prepared to do something which seems impossible for you to do. BIG ASK. YES, but we serve a BIG GOD where nothing is impossible for Him. So, are you willing to be healed? Are you earnest about receiving your healing? Or, maybe you have resigned yourself to accept your sickness and disease. Today, make every effort to come to Christ. He is waiting to HEAR from you. In Jesus Name . . . AMEN.
