A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR RAYMOND

We are beginning to celebrate Christmas 2019.

As we approach Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, what does the birth of God's Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, mean to you this year? The birth of Christ is a fact in history, but how do you relate factual events of the Bible into a living faith? We are able to learn much from the main people involved in the Christmas happenings. The young mother Mary received with such openness and honesty the supernatural intervention from God upon her young life. Joseph taking upon himself the responsibility of being a husband and a dad, being guided into a protective role towards his new baby and wife. The shepherds going about their routine work and responsibility of watching over and caring for their flock of sheep. Responding immediately to the message from God and in curiosity or a 'must see' desire to go and to see for themselves what the Angel had told them, which by the way, was for all mankind. And then, the three Wise Men recognised something different in the sky, a fresh new bright star, and because of their interest in the stars they wanted to find out more, to pursue what they had seen to go where the star led them, and in awareness of all that was happening came to the Christ Child, worshipped Him and offered their own personal gifts. And finally, they were alerted by God not to return by the way they came, not to go and visit King Herod and report to him, but to go on their journey by another route. This Christmas as you remind yourself of how God had moved in all of these persons lives, how God had manifested Himself, and how each one had had a deep divine connection with God. Learn to apply into your life the way how all these people depended on God. Wrapped up in this wonderful event is a deep revelation of God moving in a situation that has affected the destiny of man. All men will respond to all that Christ has accomplished in the salvation of a man's, or woman's soul. All can be saved, but not all chooses to be saved. To those who respond in faith to believe that Christ is the only begotten Son of God who came to earth to save those that are lost, and to redeem all mankind back to God through His shed blood for the redemption of a man's soul has been bought, paid for, in full by the Blood of Jesus forgiving us all of our sin.

New life, fresh opportunities, changed destinies, began for some when Christ was born. Today God's Spirit is powerfully at work in the lives who desire this enabling the impossible to be possible, divine guidance and divine intervention can be experienced in your life. A new message of hope and of the future can be yours if you will listen to the Word of God, and we are able to come and worship Christ bringing to Him our special offering. So this Christmas, what does the birth of Jesus Christ mean to you, God's only begotten Son. Are you able to act in faith to the message that God is with you! Emmanuel! May God bless you richly this Christmas and may you be united with Christ at this special time and be led by His Spirit into the New Year. Expect God to do new beautiful things in your life as you serve Him. In Jesus Name . . . AMEN.

To all our readers – Happy Christmas and a Peaceful New Year.
